

409 Edgewood Ave.
New York City.
June 2, 1939.

Mr. A. L. Manley
101 Montgomery St.
Newark N.J.

Dear Sir:

You have evidently overlooked my reply to your letter of Apr. 11. in re Negro National Baseball League and me. In case you are not in receipt of same I am again submitting a statement.

Last September, a game was staged between the all stars of both leagues at Yankee Stadium.

3.

I was advised that this amount plus the sum you club owners would agree to pay me would be received by me when the rain guarantee check was divided.

To-date I have received nothing save the letter dated 4-11-39, from your office.

Wishing you and the league unbounded success I am

Respectfully yours

Lewis E. Dial.

409 Edgewood Ave.

N. Y. C.

2.

I was advised that a meeting was held in Philadelphia and that the club-owners voted to place John L. Clark on salary and would make adjustment with me after the game for assisting Mr. Clark.

You will recall that Mr. Clark was forced to spend a great deal of time at Leipersville, Pa. and I acted in his stead.

Unfortunately a week's downpour and other incidents caused this game to be a fiasco. I spent $14.70 for taxi-fare, telephones etc. and distributions and collecting tickets.